SUEZ joins French President's business delegation to China: launches new contract with local partners to support China's ecological transition

SUEZ was part of the French business delegation that accompanied French President Emmanuel Macron on his state visit to China from 5 to 7 April 2023. This visit further strengthened ties between France and China, creating more opportunities for collaboration between the two countries. During this visit, witnessed by ministers of both countries, SUEZ and its Chinese partners, Wanhua Chemical Group (Wanhua) and China Railway Shanghai Engineering Bureau Group (CRSH), signed a cooperative agreement on seawater desalination project at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing, that will further expand their cooperation in the environmental sector.

During the visit in China, SUEZ Chairman & CEO Sabrina Soussan was invited for interviews by several mainstream Chinese media outlets, including CGTN, China Daily, Global Times, Economic Daily, among others. She emphasized SUEZ's ambition to become the best environmental company in China. Despite her packed schedule, she also made time to connect with the team, listening to and exchanging with colleagues.

SUEZ Chairman & CEO Sabrina Soussan visits Macao, Chongqing & Shanghai

SUEZ Chairman & CEO Sabrina Soussan visited government officials, partners, clients and representatives from various organizations in Macao, Chongqing and Shanghai from 23-26 May 2023. She also graced SUEZ sites and held exchanges with our colleagues. She took this opportunity to thank the clientele and staff in China for their continued support and reiterated the importance of growing SUEZ's presence in the Chinese market.

I met with the government officials, clients and partners and exchanged with them face-to-face about how to develop circular economy to accelerate China's ecological transition and sustainable development. I was delighted to meet our passionate and dedicated SUEZ teams who are committed to providing best services to our clients. Additionally, during the exchanges with local clients and partners, I solicited suggestions and feedback about ecological transformation and sustainable development, which were valuable for us to improve our services. ”

In Macao

Sabrina's trip began in Macao. She met with the representatives from the Liaison Office of Central Government, and government officials such as Secretary for Transport and Public Works. She also had the opportunity to meet Ms. Christile Drulhe, Consul General of France in Hong Kong and Macao, along with representatives from the Customer Liaison Group of Macao Water, local associations and organizations as well as the Chamber of Commerce.

Another item on her itinerary was to visit the renowned One-Star Green Label Water Treatment Plant, Seac Pai Van, in Macao. The facility not only treats water, but also serves to educate the public on water treatment and water resource conservation. Innovative practices and designs enable this plant to not only successfully minimize its environmental footprint to preserve invaluable land in such a populous area but has also significantly bolstered Macao's water supply capabilities, setting us on course to satisfy the city's water demand for the next decade. Sabrina was also happy to have an exchange with young talents and expressed her gratitude for their contributions to improve the communities' well-being.

In Chongqing

Chongqing, China's largest municipality, was the second on Sabrina's itinerary. Notable figures she held meetings with were Chen Mingbo, Executive Vice Mayor of Chongqing, and our local partners. The Waste-to-Energy project by Sanfeng Environment Group was one of the sites she visited, and she also graced the Yuelai Water Treatment Plant. Sabrina commented that for over 20 years, SUEZ's collaboration with Chongqing represents a successful partnership between Chinese and foreign companies, and we remain dedicated to supporting the municipality's advancement towards our shared sustainable development goals.

Chongqing is an excellent example of how SUEZ continues to innovate and lead the way in circular solutions in China. Working hand in hand with our partners, we provide drinking water services to nearly 3 million residential and commercial clients in this city. In the mega city with a population of 320 million, our involvement has expanded from water supply to sewage treatment, sludge treatment, industrial park environmental services and R&D. We are also a strategic shareholder in both Chongqing Water Group and Sanfeng Environment Group, which are leading water and waste listed companies in China.

In Shanghai

The last stop of her trip was Shanghai. There, she met with the management team and staff and was grateful to the Shanghai team for their tremendous efforts to maintain service continuity throughout the COVID-19 period. People are the most valuable resources in SUEZ, and we work hand in hand to create a positive impact environmentally and socially, so as to build a better future.

SCIP SITA celebrates 20th anniversary

On 24 March 2023, the SUEZ Asia management, together with the management of Shanghai Chemical Industry Park Development Co., Ltd. (SCIP DC) and SCIP SITA, as well as partners in the Park and our staff, gathered to celebrate the 20th anniversary of SCIP SITA.

In 2003, SUEZ and Shanghai Chemical Industry Park signed a cooperative agreement to provide hazardous waste disposal services to leading petrochemical companies in the Park and other industrial clients around Shanghai. In 2017, upon commission of the third production line, the total treatment capacity of the plant was boosted to 120,000 tonnes per year, making it one of the largest hazardous waste incineration projects in Asia. We offer a range of hazardous waste incineration services upon reception, identifying hazardous risks at source and developing appropriate pre-treatment solutions, so that each kind of waste has an independent ID and the whole process is transparent and traceable. In addition, the project is equipped with an energy recovery unit to supply the heat generated by incineration to industrial enterprises in the Park, which can reduce an equivalent of 143,000 tonnes of carbon dioxide emission per year, realizing circular economy as well as energy saving and emission reduction. In 2016, to achieve sustainable development and enhance competitiveness, a solid waste R&D Center was set up, focusing on research on improving Waste-to-Energy recovery rate, process optimization and the development of industrial standardization.

We hope SCIP SITA continues to explore and innovate to better meet the developmental needs of the Park and enterprises. By reacting proactively to the future environmental concerns and the 'Dual Carbon Target', SCIP SITA would find new ways to further reduce energy consumption and carbon emission, and support the Park in achieving its ambition towards green and low carbon development, as defined in the 14th Five-Year Plan.

SUEZ Asia H&S App

SUEZ Asia H&S team

SUEZ Asia attaches great importance to health and safety. We have solicited many suggestions and ideas around the region and have developed a comprehensive app for safety management. Using this app, we will reduce the use of paper and improve our work efficiency. Currently, the app is widely used in SUEZ Asia and has been promoted to other regions in the SUEZ Group.

- High efficiency: after using the app, the operator spends only 10 minutes to fill in a safety visit report and the site safety coordinator just needs to spend several minutes to submit the proposal for improvement. It used to take around 2 hours to complete the said processes.
- Comprehensiveness: the app standardizes the sharing process of safety visits, incident reporting, safety self-inspection, basic health and safety information filling, as well as good practices. It can be used both on mobiles and computers.
- Continual optimization: improvements will be made for the app to further explore the functions of potential risk reporting, risk investigation, information exchange, safety standard sharing and others. It will enable all the staff to participate in risk control.
