

Beijing office, Mainland China

Mechanical & Process Engineer

responsibility

- Work as mechanical job leader in projects; as well as engineering manager in small and medium size projects;
- Support project tendering, such as equipment list, specification for enquiry, technical clarification with vendor and hydraulic gradient line calculation;
- Provide assistance on project execution;
- Other assignments from the supervisor.

requirement

- Qualified in Design with 7 years of work experience in water treatment;
- Higher education in environmental engineering, water supply and sewerage engineering or related;
- Work experience in design institutes or water treatment engineering company is preferred;
- Familiar with water and sludge treatment process design;
- Familiar with equipment characteristics & operation, material and limitations;
- Good command of spoken and written Chinese & English.

contact

Interested party may send us your resume to lu.gan@suez.com .