

Chongqing, Mainland China

Cost & Contract Manager

responsibility

- Fully responsibility for the company's contract and cost management;
- Responsible for the establishment and improvement of the system and process, and ensure the cost and contract management normalization;
- Participate in the formulation of the company's business plan, responsible for the preparation of the company's cost target, tendering and bidding plan, and promote and supervise its completion;
- Formulate and manage the project budget and final accounts, implement the project budget dynamic management to meet the cost goal;
- Responsible for the company's bidding management;
- Responsible for the company's tendering management.

requirement

- Bachelor's degree or above in engineering cost, engineering management, municipal/architectural/environmental engineering, medium grade or above professional certificate, national registered cost engineer qualification certificate (major in municipal engineering) is preferred;
- At least 6 years working experience in project/cost/bidding management, more than 2 years team management experience, familiar with the process, contract, tendering and bidding and other relevant laws and regulations of environmental protection projects;
- Rich experience in tendering and bidding, familiar with the whole process of tendering and bidding for construction/environmental engineering, good at making bidding documents.

contact

Interested party may send us your resume to chris-xd.chen@suez.com .