

Dongying, Mainland China

Plant Manager

responsibility

- To continuously improve the operation, by implementing Quality, Hygiene, Safety and Environmental policy, ensures all operations are carried out safely in compliance with all Policies and Procedures, to achieve target of zero incident;
- To authorize the waste acceptance and delivery and manage their internal procedures;
- To set up the KPI management system for plant and each department together with GM, check and evaluation the system on a regular basis;
- Achieve the goal set by the company through continuously safe practice;
- Guide each department to set up SOP;
- Continuously work on improvement projects to maximize the safety, improve equipment availability and reliability on site and minimum operation cost.

requirement

- Education: Bachelor science or above, Major in Chemistry ,environment or related;
- Experience: 10 years working experiences in chemical, petrochemical industry, at least 5 years plant level management experience;
- Language: Fluent in English communication;
- Excellent skills in: TPM, performance management, leadership, safety, environment;
- Working Attitude Open mind, can-do attitude; Self-discipline; Self-motivated;
- Others: Team-building skills, Microsoft office.

contact

Interested party may send us your resume to chris-xd.chen@suez.com .