

Northern China

Senior Engineer, Meter

responsibility

Reporting to Deputy Director with below responsibilities:

- Responsible for automation and IT management , design, audit related;
- Participate in the automation and IT technology work of the company's operation;
- Conduct relevant automation develop, audit and deliver training;
- Provide support to the joint ventures to improve automation management;
- Master and apply common database and computer programming, and solve problems independently;
- Complete other tasks required by the leader.

requirement

- Bachelor or above in mechanical engineering, IT and automation or related;
- At least 5 years working experience in automation & IT design development;
- Have a high professional understanding of mainstream PLC;
- Good experience in database and workflow development;
- Good skills in Power BI, Excel;
- Experience on SCADA software will be plus.

contact

Interested party may send us your resume to hrd.wo@suez.com .