

Beijing office, Mainland China

Proposal Engineer

responsibility

- Assist the Proposal Manager or independently responsible for a project subject to the complexity and the size of the project;
- Ensure follows-up during the development of the proposal;
- Drive the process design development to target the most competitive layout, technologies and process treatment lines; ensure the timely production of all design deliverables required for the proposal;
- Estimate the value of the project against the bid evaluation criteria;
- Report all risks (or potential) and propose solutions;
- Transfer the project smoothly to the execution team after the project is successfully awarded.

requirement

- A good technical know-how or degree holder in the field of water treatment;
- Good knowledge about project budgeting;
- Technical presentation and negotiation is a definite advantage;
- Familiar with project management procedure.

contact

Interested party may send us your resume to lu.gan@suez.com .